

Merck Research Laboratories recognizes and encourages outstanding achievements in the chemistry, biochemistry, and biophysics of peptides. The award consists of $5,000 and a certificate. Merck Research Laboratories established the award in 1988. In 2014, this award will be presented biennially in even-numbered years. The award is administered by ACS.