

These custom antiserum production services make use of conventional, gnotobiotic, or specific pathogen-free environments and include a variety of animal species to meet client requirements. Containment level 3 laboratories allow the handling of hazardous pathogens. Applications include vaccine potency assays and the production of neutralizing antisera for live virus vaccine and gene-therapy vector testing.

Company: Moredun Group