

Micro Droplet Systems allow users to produce more than 10,000 monodispersed droplets per second. Built around microfluidic pumps, connectors, and chips, the Micro Droplet Systems can be used in a range of applications including compartmentalized chemistry, high-throughput experimentation, and the formation of monodispersed emulsions or beads.

Company: Dolomite Centre Ltd.