

The microarray hybridization station and scanners from Tecan uniquely offer advanced solutions for sensitive and powerful applications involving DNA, RNA and protein microarrays. The HS Pro hybridization station minimizes handling of microarrays and maximizes sensitivity and reproducibility through agitated incubation, and on-board washing and drying. The Tecan microarray scanners, the PowerScanner and LS Reloaded, offer versatility, automated operation, and high resolution for applications involving microarrays printed on glass slides and microplates.

Company: Tecan