

The Saunders S360 Actuator features a modular air cylinder range that delivers good dimensional envelope and closure performance. Its full 360° rotation capability allows for flexible installation and airport alignment, and its corrosion-resistant profile is well-suited for clean manufacturing areas. This combination of performance and hygienic design makes the S360 appropriate for biopharmaceutical applications including clean utilities, fermentation, and downstream processing.

Company: Crane ChemPharma Flow Solutions